Advantages:

1,High performance: Using Volvo D3 diesel engine, it can output 44.4kW of power, but the fuel consumption can still be kept at a low level.

Outstanding lifting capabilities: Powerful hydraulic performance and stability ensure its excellent lifting and handling capabilities.

2,Strong traction: It can climb hills easily, ensuring that it can drive freely in rugged areas.

3,Large manufacturing size: Compared with products of the same level, the Volvo EC80D excavator is larger in manufacturing size, heavier, and has a wider and longer chassis, which makes the machine better in terms of stability, hoisting capacity, ground clearance and working range. The performance is outstanding.

4,Made of high-strength elastic material: The big arm and small arm are made of high-strength elastic material, which maximizes the machine's durability and normal working time, while optimizing the machine's working range and improving productivity.

5,The cab is spacious and comfortable: The cab is spacious and comfortable, and large-size glass is installed to improve the driver's field of vision. The cab is equipped with easy-to-control operating devices, efficient heating and air-conditioning systems, and vibration and noise isolation devices, which can reduce driver fatigue.

6,Fuel pump with automatic stop function: can easily refuel large-capacity diesel tanks from the ground. The driver can observe the hydraulic oil level in the cab, allowing operators to quickly perform maintenance inspections.
